New Hot Desks and Modern Office Space to Rent in Braunton Community Work Hub

Looking for modern, affordable office space with great facilities in central Braunton? Do you want to work with like-minded people?

Braunton Parish Council are offering newly refurbished modern offices to rent as well as individual hot desks in the new Braunton work hub. If you work from home you may want the use of faster broadband and a professional office for meetings. Or are you always on the road and need to reconnect at the work hub? The new flexible work space has facilities which include super-fast wifi connection, printing and photocopying, kitchen and social space and also a free coffee machine! It is perfectly located in the centre of Braunton just off the Tarka Trail with parking and cycle storage.

Hot desks will be available on low cost day rates with office space available weekly or monthly.

For further details and tariffs please contact the Clerk or see our website.
